

HAPPY NEW YEAR

A Year of New Beginnings

There is something wonderful about the word "new." It brings a sense of hope for what is yet to come. The Bible offers a wealth of promises tied to the word "new," such as in 2 Corinthians 5:17, 2 Peter 3:13, Ezekiel 36:26, and Lamentations 3:23.

These verses remind us of the fresh starts, renewed spirits, and the hope God provides in our lives. Take some time to explore your own list of Bible promises with the word "new" and reflect on the powerful messages they hold.

Living with Hope

As we step into this new year, I encourage you to embrace hope—hope that inspires determination and effort, leading to a happy and fruitful year. Each day is an opportunity for growth, for making intentional choices, and for deepening your connection with God. Let this year be one of renewed purpose, creativity, and spiritual discovery. Together, let's walk into this year with faith and the courage to pursue all that God has in store for us.

Each Day is an Opportunity For You:

N ~ Notice the areas that need growth and take time to work on those.

E ~ Empty yourself of all that weighs you down and ask God to fill your heart with all that lifts you up.

W ~ Watch for opportunities to be of service.

Y ~ Yearn and work for those things that are right, good and of value.

E ~ Enjoy the moments by being grateful for the blessings.

A ~ Aim for goals that help you grow in all areas.

R ~ Remember that each new day is an opportunity to begin anew!

Blessings for the New Year

Praying you experience 12 months of personal and spiritual growth, 52 weeks of laughter, 365 days of fun, 8,760 hours of joy, 525,600 minutes of blessings, and 31,536,000 seconds of happiness. Happy New Year!
